

MOHO-BILONDO

PROJECT OVERVIEW

VIKING FORCADOS

ROV Services with Acergy UK Limited for Total E&P Congo. Supporting the development of Moho-Bilondo in the Republic of Congo

The ROV services on Moho-Bilondo included the following:

- Pre-Lay Survey
- Touchdown monitoring
- Visual Survey
- Metrology Survey
- Pre-commissioning
- Operation of ROV tooling, including guillotine cable cutters, Transponders, HP Water jetting, Grinder, Dredge Pump etc.

PROJECT OVERVIEW

LOCATION

The Moho-Bilondo field is located 80km offshore in the Republic of Congo, in water depths of between 540 to 730 metres.

PROJECT DATE/DURATION

- Mobilisation : Pointe-Noire, Congo on Aug 07
- Offshore Campaign : Aug 07—Nov 07
- Demobilisation : Pointe-Noire, Congo on Nov 07

ASSETS

WROV Triton XLS 03

SCOPE OF WORK

ROV assistance for the following activities—

- Pre-lay survey and touchdown monitoring during flowline / flexible / umbilical laydown
- Installation and positioning of minor structures
- Visual & sonar surveys
- Metrology Survey
- Pre-commissioning involving manipulator and valve operations

WHAT OUR CUSTOMER HAD TO SAY:

"The guys worked well with a good team spirit and were willing to undertake all challenges. There were very few problems with the vehicle and it was kept very well maintained and was always ready for deployment" - Andy Smeaton, Offshore Manager, Acergy (11/11/2007)